ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

[] (2) The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.

[] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

[] (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the pretrial services report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 36 year old United States citizen. She recently completed a six month prison sentence for a supervised release violation. She previously lived in a house owned by her mother in law in La Joya, Texas. Her mother and one sister live in Mission, Texas. Another sister is incarcerated and she has little contact with her brother. Her four children live with her mother in law. Her husband is incarcerated.
2. Defendant is accused of conspiring and attempting to bring illegal immigrants into the United States in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371 and 8 U.S.C. § 1324. Defendant is facing a potential penalty of up to ten years in prison.
3. Defendant has a prior felony conviction for transporting illegal immigrants. She previously had her supervised release revoked. Evidence in the revocation proceeding indicated that she left the United States for Mexico and attempted to return by wading across the Rio Grande River.
4. Defendant has no stable employment history and a history of cocaine use.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
